FROM THEIR ROYAL MAJESTIES

Good lords and ladies of this strong and mighty Kingdom of the Outlands, Your King and Queen call you to ARMS!!!!!! Estrella War is upon us. The Kingdoms of Caid and Atenveldt are bringing their armies together in defense against us once again. We need to see one and all draw around the Mighty Stag and show our green and gold as a field of strength and honor. As We pass through the Midwinter celebrations there will be war practices in which we all can join our brothers and sisters to hone our skills. The generals have drawn on their wisdom to see that we will be victorious and Our artisans have sharpened their skills. We, the Outlands, are the strongest and most talented gentles in the Knowne World. Let us strive together to once again to show those that come against us there are no barriers we cannot surmount.

We would like to give thanks to one and all for the enjoyment and great wonders that have been bestowed upon Us during these winter months as We travel to the Midwinter celebrations throughout this Kingdom. It is always a wonderful thing to see everyone in their finest garments. After having a wonderful summer season for which We give many thanks, We also look forward to the next season.

As seasons change and We look into Our own future, We will be questing for Our heirs to the Mighty Stag thrones. We will be holding a crown tournament to insure the Royal lineage of the Outlands. The requirements to enter list Crown list, in addition to what is in Kingdom Law, are as follows:

- ❑ Both combatant and consort must have received at least an Award of Arms.
- ❑ Both combatant and consort must be acceptable to the Crown with a letter of intent signed by a Peer of Chivalry if that combatant is not a Peer.
- ❑ These letters must be delivered prior to the date of February 13, 2002. No letters will be accepted after this date.
- ❑ Non-Peer combatants must have a Peer of the Chivalry to speak for them at the time of the opening court.

We are honored to announce that We have chosen Sir Dietrich and Mistress Leonora as the new and upcoming Baron and Baroness for Unser Hafen. Our sincere best wishes go out to them. We ask that all attend their investiture on January 19th. Please be reminded We are seeking letters of intent to maintain the Kingdom Office of Arts and Sciences. Letters should be directed to Ourselves and to The Kingdom Seneschal no later than February 13, 2002.

As We sit the Mighty Stag throne, We would like to give a Royal whim or two. We would like to remind you it is nice to escort a lady but it is better to carry her basket. To the ladies, it should be a pleasure to allow your escort to carry things for you. We also charge Our Peers in fealty to seek out a newcomer and make them welcome at an event. Her Majesty also declares milk chocolate as Period.

In closing, We would wish to give Our thanks to all those that have helped us on Our journeys and Our duties. These things wouldn't be as special without those who have given both their time and energies.

The Fairgrounds are on your left. The large round building as you enter the fairgrounds is the building for the event.

The Saxons fought to save their land from Normans and from Vikings, And so they fought two battles grand at Stamford Bridge and Hastings. And with those battles, England came out from the age of mystery. Come join us at the 12th Night feast to share this time in history.

Good gentles, the birth of the new England occurred on the battlefields at Stamford Bridge and Hastings in 1066. From the depths of the dark ages, England was transformed into the country we have come to know during the medieval and enlightened ages of the renaissance.

There will be games and contests pitting the Saxons against Vikings and Normans. Planned activities include boffer tournaments for adults and children, dart tournaments, and an embroidery contest using patterns from the Bayeaux tapestry. Children will be able to "paint" panels from the tapestry as well as enjoy a special event, the Harald Hardrada Pinata (not period, but it should be a lot of fun!!). Other games such as an invasions trivia contest and a bardic competition will also be held, with the winning bard performing at the evening feast. The best costumes from each of the three factions in the invasion wars will be awarded prizes, with an overall prize for the best costume for men and women. All contest participants will register at troll so that they are included in their events at the appropriate time.

The invasions feast will include items similar to those that appear on two separate panels of the Bayeaux tapestry. Prepared by Lady Aethelind of Erbesweald, the feast will combine the tastes of Vikings, Normans, and Saxons as they occurred at the height of the invasion period. First course of the feast is the Fighter's table, and includes Pork roast, stewed apples, pease porridge with greens, and oat bread. Second course is Bishop Odo's fare, and includes salmon cawdle, blanched greens and plum bread pudding. The final course is "The Conqueror's Bounty" and includes beef roast, honey glazed root vegetables, white bread and barley with pears.

A donation lunch provided by the outstanding cooks of Caerthe and coordinated by THL Arwen Southenwood is planned, with proceeds to be shared between the Fortress and OH publication funds.

Merchants are welcome! However, reservations for space are required in advance as merchant space is limited extremely limited. No merchant may reserve more than one table. Site fees are required for merchants and a tithe for prizes is expected. Contact Lady Killian McKenzie (Dawn Whitacre) at 303 773-9596 for space and requirements.

To all good and noble gentles, of the Great and Mighty Barony of Dragonsspine Nay! to all the Outlands,

Has the cold and dreary skies of winter darkened your spirits? Soured your bread? Brought the tint of brown to your sword and armor? If so, then by all means come and join us high atop the spine of the dragon, well above the clouds standing in the bright light of the sun, where the day still has warmth, and hundreds of candles bring light and warmth to the night. Where fair maids and warriors alike, still celebrate the joy of life, in anticipation of the coming of the New Year. So let not this great occasion pass you by. Come and light your spirit, bring life to your sword, let the sun glint off your armor and let all join in the merriment. There will be food enough to stagger even the appetite of a dragon. Combats and Tourneys so robust with skill and honor that the din of combat shall ring through the mountains and roll well beyond the plains. Games! Oh the games that will go from the break of dawn well into the break of the next dawn. Are you excited yet!? Well if not, then perhaps you already died of a straw death. Have some kind and gentle soul drag your corpse here and this will even awaken your dead soul. What you may ask is this glorious event? Well of course it is none other than..... Dragonsspine's Candlemas, haven't you heard? Well now you have!

FROM THE KINGDOM SENESHAL

Good Day All,

The north wind is blowing hard on the shutters of my keep as I pen this missive to you. These winds signal a time of feasting, a time of war and times of change.

At StagCon I had mentioned that a major change regarding waivers was in the works. Not in how we do them at events, but how we maintain them once the event is over. Well, the board of Directors has acted and the new change has been made official. A copy of the change to Corpora follows my article. In short each kingdom will now be responsible for maintaining the waivers people sign at events. Secondly a Waiver Secretary must be created to maintain the waivers. In regular Outlands tradition, Mistress Richenza Wydu has volunteered to take on the task of keeping our waivers straight. So, beginning immediately please send all completed waivers, packaged by event and separated adult from minor to:

Caroline Kearns
P.O. Box 42
Glenwood, NM 88039
(505) 539-2310

I announced in October that I would be accepting applications for the position of Seneschal of the Kingdom of the Outlands. Today I would announce that I have submitted the name of Master Adam Stedefast to the Society Seneschal as my recommendation to be my successor. Adam is a fine man who understands how the modern day tasks must be accomplished to ensure our medieval world runs smoothly.

Lastly, I have been in consultation with Their Majesties who wish to have a new Minister of Arts and Sciences found. They will be accepting applications for the office up until just before Estrella War. Please see Their Majesties article for full details.

As we prepare to meet the changes that winter is blowing in, please remember that the welfare of our fellow Outlanders is of the utmost importance. Remember to lend a hand when you see another in need, and stand tall to be the example that all other Outlanders can follow

In Service
Syr Rhys

Delete from Corporate Polices from VI. Waivers - Procedures the following sections:

E. All original executed waivers shall be sent to the Member Services Office by each branch on a monthly basis. Waivers should be separated by function and each grouping clearly labeled with the following information: name of the branch, name of the function, date of the function. Copies of waivers need not be kept at the local or Kingdom level.

F. The Member Service Office shall maintain the waivers as follows:
Minor Waivers: 20 years
Adult Waivers: 7 years

Put in it's place the following section:

E. Each Kingdom shall have a single responsible officer ("Waiver Secretary") as a deputy to the Kingdom Seneschal to ensure that all required waivers, rosters, and sign-in sheets are collected and safely stored within a reasonable time after each event. The Waiver Secretary shall ensure that waivers for each event can be located and provided to the appropriate officials in the event a specific waiver is required.

Each Kingdom shall store all original executed waivers, rosters, and sign-in sheets, or legally accepted facsimiles, in such a manner that a responsible party can easily retrieve any needed waiver.

F. Local groups need not maintain copies of these records. Kingdoms shall maintain the adult waivers for seven years and the minor waivers for 20 years.

FROM THE KINGDOM RAPIER MARSHAL

Unto all rapier fighters of the Kingdom of the Outlands does Don Carrick send greetings! As winter grips the Kingdom our thoughts turn to warm fires, yuletide feasts, and, of course, WAR! I encourage everyone to attend as many war practices as possible, to help prepare Their Majesties' armies to take the field at Estrella. But please remember to take care of your blades, and warm them before fighting. As a rule of thumb, if you can see your breath, it's too cold to fence outside. For those fencers who need to renew their authorizations before Estrella, the following is the current list of Authorizing Marshals for the Kingdom:

Sir Berold (Citadel), Don Govanen (al-Barran), Lord Coinneach (al-Barran), Lady Rebekah Tinker (Drygestan), Lord Ivar (Fontaine/Rio de las Animas), Lady Ildiko (Dragonsspine), THL Diego (Dragonsspine), THL Rivka (Caerthe), Lady Natalia (Schola/Hawks Hollow), Don Max (Caer Galen), Don Ian (Caer Galen), Don Christian (Caerthe), Don Robert Stewart (Unser Hafen), (anyone who thought they were an authorizing marshal and is not on this list needs to contact me.)

Also, I need doomsday reports from all group and authorizing marshals before January 15. Please tell me the number of authorized fighters in your local groups, what they are authorized in, how many authorized marshals there are, and details of any incidences, injuries, sanctions, or other noteworthy events.

Finally, I am in the process of finalizing the rules changes, which I intend to present to Their Majesties for signature at Caerthan 12th Night. Anyone who wishes to comment on the changes needs to contact me before then. Copies of the proposed changes will be available from any local or authorizing marshal, or you may of course contact me directly.

In Service,
Don Carrick

FROM THE KINGDOM CHRONICLER

I hope this missive finds all in good holiday spirits.

I just wanted to remind all autocrats and seneshals that the requirement for event article publications can be found in the back of the Outlandish Herald. Please make sure that all the information that is required is in your article.

I want to thank all who helped me with the December issue of the O.H. (you know who you are...)

Well, that's about it then. I wish everyone a happy and fruitfull new year.

Christina

FROM THE KINGDOM HOSPITALLER

Greetings unto the Populace of the Mighty Kingdom of The Outlands!

Just a quick note this month to let you know I have a new Southern Deputy! Please Welcome Savya the Silent from the College of Saint Golias. Chronicler, I am prepared for the oversight of combat.
Yeah, thanks, Richard.
Ummm, Thomas?
Yes?
Why did Richard bring that rattan pole?
He is the Marshal, you know. Marshals use rattan poles.
But... this is an officer's meeting...
Indeed.

MISCELLANEOUS

FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

At the October 20, 2001 quarterly meeting of the Board of Directors, the petition below, signed by the Crowns of nine Kingdoms, was presented.

The Board of Directors is extremely interested in receiving comments from the membership. Please write to: Comments, SCA Inc., Box 360789, Milpitas CA 95036, or email comments@sca.org.

Whereas, We, the Crowns of the Known World here assembled, do recognize and require greater representation of the diverse cultural viewpoints of our Kingdoms within the Board of Directors for the Society for Creative Anachronism, and,

Whereas, We recognize that the number of Board Members does not need to change, and,

Whereas, We recognize that any alterations to the structure of the Board should not impose additional financial burdens on the budget for the Board,

Therefore do We propose that the Board remain seven in number.

We propose that from this day forward, all future members of the Board of Directors shall be chosen by the individual Kingdoms in order of precedence of inception of the Kingdoms.

We propose that a Board Member be prepared to commit three years, the first year to be spent as a Director-Elect without vote, although privy to all discussion.

Directors-Elect are not required to attend meetings, although they are encouraged to do so, with the appointing Kingdoms to pay for expenses.

The following two years of the term to be as a Board Member with full voting rights and expenses paid by the Board budget.

We propose that each Kingdom determine their own method of choosing their appointee from within their Kingdom or without, which they feel best meets the needs of their Realm.

We propose that there be no limits to the number of times a Board member may serve.

We propose that the sitting Board members may veto a nomination, with just and stated cause.

Should such a veto take place the nominating Kingdom will choose another candidate.

This agreement do we set out hands to this 13th day of August at the Pennsic War XXX in the year of the Society XXXVI being 2001, Gregorian.

AVAILABLE AT LAST!

The collected writings of Sir Guillaume de la Belgique

For more than ten years the people of Caid have enjoyed Guillaume's hilarious and insightful examinations of life in and around the SCA. Now, in this 200-page book, readers all across the Known World have a chance to become acquainted with the author who has been called "the Dave Barry of the SCA," and "the medieval Jerry Seinfeld."

Order on-line or by mail at www.KnownWorldWeb.com

With a special introduction for non-SCA members, this book also makes an excellent gift for friends and family.

"Few people can capture the experience of the Current Middle Ages the way Guillaume can. With exceptional wit and boundless humor he reminds us of who we are and why we are here."
— Duke Armand de Sevigny, KSCA, OP, first King of Caid (from the foreword)

"We Are Not Amused, Sir Guillaume!"

Humorous and heartwarming stories of knighthood, medieval history, and life in (and around) the Society for Creative Anachronism.

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.

The Field Mouse & the House Mouse

Once a field mouse invited his friend the house mouse to dinner. Not satisfied with the meal of barley and wheat, the house mouse said to the field mouse, "There are so many good things to eat where I live! Come visit me and you'll taste a little of everything." So the two of them went to the house mouse's house, where they found vegetables, fruits, dates, honey and cheese. When the field mouse saw all this, he began to think that the house mouse's life was really much better than his own. But each time they were ready to begin eating, some man would suddenly open the door, and the poor mice would have to jump into a crack in the floor. Finally the field mouse, who was good and hungry by this time, said, "Friend, stay here and eat to your heart's content -- if you don't mind all the trouble and the danger. I'll stick to my wheat and barley, as long as I can live in peace and quiet."

Moral: A simple life without worries is better than a rich life full of cares. AESOP

If my rough hammer gives a human face

To this or that of all hard blocks that wait,

It is another smith makes me create,

Controlling each my motion, each my pace.

But that high hammer beyond the stars and space

Makes self, and others with each stoke, more great

And bright; and since the first must generate

All hammers, that gives life to all, always.

And since the most effective is that blow

Which falls from highest in the smithy, mine

Shall fall no more — my hammer having flown.

Now here am I, unskilled, and do not know

How to go on, unless the smith divine

Teaches me how, who am on earth alone.
